Step Bright Up

The number of students experiencing housing insecurity and homelessness in Indianapolis is at an all-time high. That's why Brightlane Learning is calling on you to Step Bright Up and donate back-to-school items to help students in need get ready for school.

Collect items from our wish list or donate directly from June 26 – July 31.

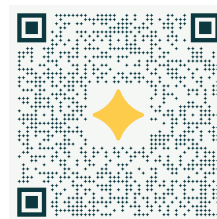

Motivate others to Step Bright Up and help your team win by sharing pictures of your donations. The highest-value items earn the most points, and the organization that earns the most points with their collection wins bragging rights in this friendly competition!
